A MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO

Lyndon Brieffies

Tonight we welcome Lakeside Lightning to Belmont Oasis for Round 14 of the Coles Express NBL1 West fixtures. A warm welcome also to our sponsors and special guests including the Member for Victoria Park Ms Hannah Beazley, the Member for South Perth Mr Geoff Baker, and their families.

We are very excited to also have a full capacity crowd after COVID restrictions affected our NAIDOC game last weekend. For this reason we are again proudly wearing our Indigenous uniforms for our Redbacks family this week. We are also privileged to have the President of the Indigenous and Black Players Association Mr Isaiah Walley-Stack performing a 'Welcome to Country' for us tonight. Our Indigenous uniforms were designed by Isaiah's father, Phil Walley-Stack with the spider web in the centre of the design reflecting Kings Park and connection to the land. The design also shows the web connected to meeting places around the centre of Perth and the song lines between these. The design reflects the nomadic nature of the Redbacks and our meeting places around the CBD and in the five local government areas where we play basketball.

If you love our Indigenous singlets as much as we do, you can visit our merchandise stand on court two to order your own personalised Indigenous Perth Redbacks singlet and view our range of new T-shirts.

Finally, thanks to our wonderful game night volunteers who work so tirelessly behind the scenes.

Go Redbacks! #together
