A MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO

Lyndon Brieffies

I would like to welcome the Willetton Tigers for our Indigenous Round clash at Belmont Oasis. Tonight promises to showcase some exciting basketball with the men's and women's teams from both clubs in good form and fighting to secure strong positions in the playoffs.

We are also honoured to welcome to the Walley-Stack family who will be performing a 'Welcome to Country' and 'Spider Dance' to help us acknowledge the traditional owners of this land in Naidoc week. Phil Walley-Stack is the artist who has designed our incredible Indigenous singlets and we are so proud to adopt the Indigenous spider web as an important symbol of our club. Our sincere thanks to the Walley-Stack family.

Tonight's game is also the annual Hiddlestone Memorial game, held in memory of Vern Hiddlestone. Vern's daughter Brooke played over 350 games in the WA State League in a distinguished career that spanned 18 years, and all those games from 2000 on were for the Perth Redbacks. The Hiddlestone family have been long time supporters of our club, both as sponsors but also in terms of volunteer hours. It was a huge shock to lose Vern in 2014. He had been placed on the Perth Redbacks Roll of Honour just two years prior for services to the club and basketball generally. It is our great pleasure to host Vern's wife Kaye and other members of the Hiddlestone family tonight. They will be selecting the Redbacks MVP for tonight's games.

Thanks also to our tireless staff and volunteers who have helped to organise this evening.

Go Redbacks! #Together.
