A MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO

Ryan Lenegan

As we celebrate NAIDOC week and the NBL1 West First Nations round, we wish to acknowledge the traditional owners of the land on which the Association is located, the Wadjuk people of the Noongar Boodja, and pay our respects to their Elders past, present and emerging.

Of behalf of the Redbacks, it is a privilege to have Phil Walley-Stack and our Cultural Ambassador, Isaiah Walley-Stack, here tonight. As the artist behind our singlet design (you can read about the inspiration of the design on the next few pages of the program), we are grateful to Phil for his ongoing support of the Perth Redbacks.

We welcome the first-placed Geraldton Buccaneers to The Web tonight, after the two teams faced each other three weeks ago in the reverse fixture. In that game, Coach Mark Edman and his team battled hard but were unable to keep up with a fast-finishing Bucs side. We'll be looking to stick with them through all four quarters tonight. To do that, we'll need our fans to bring the noise and help our boys get the win.

FIRST NATIONS
ROUND

PERTH REDBACKS • NBL1 WEST

The Perth Redbacks first nations singlet design was created by Phil Walley-Stack in 2021. It depicts the spider's web in Kings Park surrounded by the waterways throughout Boorloo (Perth City) and the lines that connect them.

The red dots on the web represent the people in the Redbacks family and show it is the power of the web that binds our community together, creating an authentic and genuine connection between people of all cultures and backgrounds. Phil's design is timeless and beautifully communicates the Redbacks spirit of NGALAK | TOGETHER.
