JASON SMITH
NBL1 WOMEN'S HEAD COACH

Welcome to our 13th game of the 2023 NBL1 West season.

Tonight we host the Eastern Suns, which will be our second matchup against them this season, in our first clash we went down by 17 points.

Since our last home game, there has been a few changes to our playing roster, with Lauren Scherf and Ashli Payne both leaving the team for personal reasons. The departure of both these players definitely leave big shoes to fill, however this provides the local players the opportunity to shine.

Players of note to watch tonight are former Redback Mak Dyer, who is leading the team in scoring, Samantha Roscoe and Natalie Chou.

Even though the results haven't been what we would have liked, the girls continue to practice hard, work on their games and remain positive. As long as we continue to put in the hard yards and concentrate on what we can control, good things will happen.

Thank you to all our sponsors and supporters who continue to support us. Let's Go Redbacks.

Cheers
Jase

Hello Redbacks

After a couple mixed results on the road we are glad to be home hosting the Eastern Suns who have been fantastic this year under coach Trahair. They play the full 40 minutes every game and gave us some real problems earlier in the season.

If we are to turn around that result we'll need to continue our growth as a team on both sides of the ball. I think at our best we are an elite defensive team and we'll need to be that tonight.

Tonight we welcome David Okwera to the Redbacks on his return to Perth. I've been lucky enough to work with David in the past, he's an exciting player and exceptional person that I think you'll all enjoy watching compete.

I am really looking forward to seeing what we can achieve with our finalised roster for the remainder of season 23.

Cheers,
Nixy
