WITH WNBL1 HEAD COACH
TIM RENDULIC

Hi Redback fans,

It's great to be back & been a bit of a whirlwind off season, returning to the club I spent my entire playing career with & also beginning my coaching journey. It's a very different place to when I was last here, but for all the right reasons. My family & I are excited to be back.

The women's program has certainly undertaken a bit of a face lift over the off-season. New coaches, players, culture, values & standards, as we look to elevate the team up the ladder from previous seasons. The whole team has been hard at work over a long pre-season.

Returning this season are a talented core group led by captain, Mikayla Pirini, Raya Thompson, Rebecca Motroni, Shenae Hartee, Brooke Malone & Mya Dimanlig. Our young developing talent in Erin Cleland, Ari Creighton & club junior Mikayla Deshon have been retained. We have then added quality players & people around the squad. This is headlined by marquee players - Perth Lynx captain, Anneli Maley & Texas native, Natalie Chou. We also welcome Georgia Denehey, Kelsey Curtin, Ashlyn Lee, Jayde Popovski, Grace Tavelli & Ella Summers to Perth. All bring unique qualities to this group. Our new look coaching staff now includes Corry Easter & Shaun Bennison, whilst John Care returns to provide some continuity,

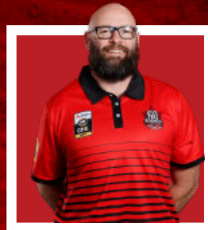

Tonight we welcome Vlad Alava & a seasoned Mandurah Magic team led by the timeless Casey Mihovilovich. They have a wealth of experience they can always lean into, a developing core group of locals & some exciting adds this season with Sam Roscoe, McKenna Dale & Nicole Fransson. We have no doubt this will be a tough game.

We're all looking forward to our first home game for 2024 & there is no doubt this season is going to provide some exciting & memorable moments at the Belmont Oasis.

Timmy

WITH MNBL1 HEAD COACH
CHARLES NIX

Hello Redbacks

Welcome to our first home game of season 2024 at the Web. We are really excited to be home after a tough start to the season last week.

It's been a long off season with a number of new players coming into our squad. I'd like to welcome Carl Aylett, Joe Cook-Green, Ioannis Dimakopolous, Miles Gibson, Cousteau Kyle, Connor Mincherton & Matt Teale into the club. With all of the new faces we are still finding our feet and understand that it will take a little time to find the chemistry we need to reach our potential. I'm confident that we have the right pieces in place to be a really successful team.

On top of the player additions, I'm excited to welcome Luke Coburn and Brian Abbey to the coaching group. Both bring a heap of experience and have already added value to our staff. It's also great to have Tevin Jackson back as our captain along with Maris Colton, Denzel Jackson and Jake Formosa as important contributors last season.

Tonight we welcome a revamped Mandurah Magic under coach Utley, our expectation is that they'll be a significant mover this year after a tumultuous 2023 season. We need to make sure we play with more energy and focus than we did last week if we are to come out today with the victory.

We appreciate the support that we have and will do all we can to represent our club in the right way, making sure we leave it all out on the floor.

Cheers
Nixy
