Hi all & welcome back to the web!

It's literally been over a month since we've played our last home game, so its going to be a much welcomed return home for the final run towards the end of the regular season. The team has continued to work hard on & off the floor which resulted in a 5-1 record over the month of May & a place inside the top 8 of the ladder. There were some great individual performances along the way with Nat Chou picking up a league player of the week, Anneli Maley continuing to throw up astounding numbers, Brooke Malone & Shenae Hartree have continued their emergence, Raya Thompson impacting games with her defence, Georgia Denehey & Mikayla Pirini continue to keep the ship steady out on the floor & every player we have plays their role & steps up when their number is called. Whilst we have a tough schedule on the home stretch that see's us facing only top 6 teams, its an exciting time as the team continues to gel, paint their identity & strive for that elusive playoff berth.

Tonight we welcome the top of the table Rockingham Flames & coach Marcus Wong. They've been the stand out for this season & we'll have to be playing some of our best basketball to come away with a victory. They have a number of weapons at their disposal, but we feel like we have some good counter matchups to these that should ensure a fantastic basketball game.

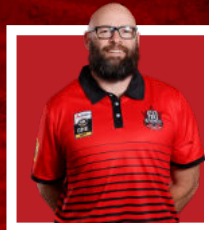

This round the league is also shining a light on mental health & well being with their annual mental health round. It's great the league continues this initiative to spread awareness on a topic that is so prevalent in communities today & affects almost all of us at some point in our lives. To help further the message on mental health both the men's & women's Redbacks teams will be wearing their 'black out' uniforms in a terrific black & orange colourway.

We hope you enjoy both the games tonight & look forward to the continued support at the remaining home games this season!

NIXY'S NEWS

WITH MNBL1 HEAD COACH
CHARLES NIX

Hello Redbacks

I can't tell you how happy we all are to be at home again. It hasn't been the season that any of us wanted internally, with some real challenges within the schedule as well as the health of our roster. We unfortunately have not had a single game so far this year where all of our players have been available for selection, this week is no exception.

Our plan over the next 6 week run of home games is to demonstrate real pride in representing the Perth Redbacks. We want our supporters to leave knowing that we put everything we could into getting the most out of ourselves and demonstrate the values of hard work, resilience and discipline in our performances. The team is still highly motivated and will finish the season with nothing left in the tank.

Tonight holds significant meaning to us being the Exeter Cup, last year was a cracking encounter with Rockingham down there and hopefully we can deliver a similar performance this year.

Another big activation is on tonight as well. Listen out and support the campaign as it is extremely important to the club that we can show strength, and numbers as an organisation. Share the links, sign up and let's show the state the big and passionate community we are.

With Pride
Nixy
