TIM TIME

WITH WNBL1 HEAD COACH
TIM RENDULIC

Evening Redbacks!

What a great result by the team last weekend! It was really rewarding to be watching at home & see the playing group really step up, trust our systems & come away with an important win against the top side in the competition.

Special mention needs to be made to the coaching staff, Corry, Benno & John who all powered the group in my absence. There was little doubt that the team, both players & coaches, had it under control & a belief in their own abilities. We're very fortunate to have a group of great individuals from top to bottom.

Despite the result, there is still plenty of work to be done & tough matchups ahead. Tonight is no exception. We welcome Brad Robbins & the Warwick Senators team that have been quietly going about their business all season. They no doubt have their eyes set on a top 2 position heading into finals. Chloe Forster has taken the leap from key piece to star of the league. Stacey Barr is still the consistent threat to score a bag any given night. Karly Murphy & Nat Burton form a towering 1-2 big combo & Izzy Miotti continues to glue it all together with her all round game & versatility.

Again, we'll have to put in another spirited performance to give ourselves a chance of beating another contender with some notable absences. But the team is always up for the challenge & the home court advantage this season has been profound! Keep that energy going Redbacks fans.

Please also take the time to read about & sign the petition for the new 12 court facility campaign for the club! This is a really important juncture in the club's history & the time is now for the Perth Redbacks to finally have a home! So please sign & encourage all your family members (anyone over 9 months old can sign!) to put their name on the petition & change the future of the club for the better.

Timmy

NIXY'S NEWS

WITH MNBL1 HEAD COACH

Hello Redbacks

It was fantastic to be home again last week, it wasn't the result we wanted but as a spectator I'm sure it was a great game to watch. I'm most excited about the growth the group has shown and that we are showing more fight every game. What a fantastic performance for our women as well, Congratulations to Corry on stepping up and doing an amazing job.

Our focus moving forward is making sure we leave with the ability to walk out with our heads high, representing our club in the right way. The work during the week continues and we are starting to get healthy bodies back which I feel will result in some great performances to finish the season.

This week we welcome Coach Cooper and his Senators who have been great all year with some highly talented players. Michael Harris has had some huge highlights and proven why he's a regular in the NBL and Todd Withers is a top level import that plays both ways. Pair those guys with the experience of Cody Ellis as well as a talented young core and you get a handful to deal with.

We are really proud to represent the Perth Redbacks and are looking forward to getting the most of the rest of the year.

Also, remember to get everyone you know to sign the petition, it is a massive time for our club.

Let's go!
Nixy
