Hi Redbacks fans & welcome back to the web for our second home game of the season!

The vibe around the sold out season opener was nothing short of stellar & we're really hopeful that we see a few more sold out Redback crowds throughout the season! No doubt the support was a key reason behind both teams coming away with wins on opening night.

Last week, the team had a really important win on the road against a formidable Perry Lakes line-up that also featured WA legend, Sami Whitcomb. In what was certainly a tale of two halves, the group showed an incredible amount of resiliency to not only stay the course but fight back from a 19 point deficit mid-way through the third quarter to seal a win. A moment that proved to the group that they're able to compete, & beat, any team in the competition.

TIM TIME

We send our best wishes to Anneli Maley who this week departed for her WNBA opportunity with the LA Sparks in the WNBA. This is a moment that she has worked so hard for & it's evident, she is very much one of the top talents this country has to offer. With two monster performances resulting in 2x player of the week awards, we have no doubt she is heading into the camp in prime form.

This weekend, we have our first double header against two quality sides in the annual ANZAC round. Saturday night will see us venture to Warwick to take on a talented Senators outfit. We know we match up well & present some headaches for them too. With any luck we'll be heading into today's game with a win on the board.

Game 2 will see us welcome Jaymi Worthington & the Goldfied Giants. They have remained committed to their largely local contingent again this season & added the evergreen Nici Gilday who is no stranger to the league. Chloe Zorzi appears to have taken some strides & then they added some local experience with Rachel Pettit. We expect a tough matchup & will have to be on point to come away with a win.

Be loud & help the teams get over the line for 2x more wins!

Tim

NIXY'S NEWS

WITH MNBL1 HEAD COACH

Hello Redbacks

Welcome to the 2nd home game of the season after 3 tough games on the road since our thrilling last home game. It's been a mixed bag of results for us at the time of writing this, with the positive results against Wolves and the Hawks split by the tough road result against the Buccs in round 2. We feel like the group is really building and showing some characteristics that great teams have.

The group is really buying into our REDS (Relentless, Energy, Discipline, Sacrifice) values with a real commitment to improving each week. This week we have the top 2 teams in the league back to back so it'll be a great test of where we sit currently. I'm really confident that we are on the right path with a great group really invested in executing each possession.

NIXY'S NEWS

Today we welcome the Giants, with a revamped roster. They have been electric in their first 2 games of the year, with big wins, so they'll come in full of confidence. It's a powerful offence with a lot of scoring options, so we know we need to be connected defensively and continue to bring the work ethic we have shown so far to get the result we are after. I'm confident that the work done this week will put us in a great position.

Being ANZAC round I want to take the opportunity to thank all of our service men and women for the sacrifices they have made, and continue to, to allow us to live the privileged lives we do. We know how fortunate we are to be able to do what we love every week.

Lastly, we wish Anneli Maley all the best as she's off to pursue her WNBA dream, it's been awesome having her again this year and watching how she goes about it.

Cheers

Nixy
