Good evening Redbacks!

Well we're officially halfway through the season & what better way to celebrate than with the Len Vlahov memorial game. The fixture is traditionally the first home game of each season, but the Vlahov family kindly allowed the club to celebrate the jersey retirement & celebration of Brooke Hiddlestone in the season opener in 2025.

Like the men, Eva Vlahov was kind enough to lend her time to the group this week to go over her life experiences, Len's storied life & the rich Redbacks history. She even put the girls through some team building which was great to see. She is the matriarch of one of WA's most prolific sporting families & we are honoured to have her & the Vlahov family here tonight as we represent the club in Len's memory - the Redbacks way.

TIM TIME

The team continues to build, get closer together & on the same page every week. This culminated in two strong wins against quality teams in Joondalup & Willetton. We are having different players step up each game & ready for their moment, which is so pleasing, an indicator of the teams depth & buy-in across the board.

Tonight presents another real challenge for the group in the East Perth Eagles. To date they only have 1 loss to their name & firmly squared away in second position. They've got a stellar starting 5 unit. Goodlett is one of the most imposing inside figures in the league, Madi Torresin is a proven commodity in NBL1 West, Awatea Leach & Tess Morrison are two quality wings & the group is spear headed by Abby Cubillo, who looks to be back to her best post-ACL injury.

We're confident we have the game plan & talent to match this team & get the job done. We appreciate the constant support & encourage the continued interactions with the players pre & post-game! Be loud Redbacks!

Tim

Hello Redbacks

Welcome to the Len Vlahov Memorial Game for 2025. On behalf of the team I would like to thank Eva Vlahov for visiting our training during the week and sharing the remarkable story of Len and his impact on not on the Redbacks but the sporting community as a whole. Some of the lessons that resonated with our group were:

- You need to do more than just the minimum required, you have to be organised and put in the additional work outside of your "team" training sessions
- Continue to learn, every day and value your education
- Versatility is valuable
- Hold each other accountable but ensure you include positive reinforcement
- Do not let players wash their own uniforms (thank you Eva)

NIXY'S NEWS

There was so much more to learn from Eva's visit. It was fantastic to get an insight into Len and the legacy that he built for our club. We are thankful for those that represented before us and understand that it's a privilege to be in our position.

Tonight we have the visiting East Perth Eagles, who have had to navigate some injuries like us to start the season. They have an extremely talented roster with dynamic young import in Lang and Rice as well as the evergreen Lee Roberts leading the way. They also bring back Ioannis Dimakoplous to the Web, I hear he's looking forward to the match up so I look forward to the challenges he presents.

It's shaping up to be a great night, we still have some of our guys unavailable due to injury but I'm confident that we'll get everything they have and make this a highly competitive encounter.

Thanks for the support as always, I know that the tide is turning.

Cheers

Nixy
