Hi Redbacks Fans!

It's great to back in black for this Friday night clash against the Suns!

The whole squad was pleased to see the backend of our heaviest month in May. To come away with a 5-2 record over this span was really pleasing. The results have left us entrenched in the top 4 & still in touch of a top 2 possibility. So a really positive outcome at just over the half way point of the season! There are still a tonne of challenges to come & the team continues to work hard both on & off the court to ensure we're all contributing to our common goal of being right in the mix at the end of the season.

Tonight we welcome in the Eastern Suns. They've had a tough season to date, but have proven to be unpredictable which is a dangerous concept in itself. They have been led by Karly Murphy who is having career best numbers & an absolute power house. They still have talent around her with the returns of club junior Emma Strelein & 2024 import Tayanna McGhee-Pleasant, Alyssa Bowen is showing signs of being a future stand out & young captain Jaymee Firkins continues to battle relentlessly. We'll have to be at our best to ensure no hiccups & we stay the course.

The fan support is continually noticed & appreciated by all players & staff! With only 4 regular season home games remaining, lets continue to be loud, pack the stands, invite your friends & please, engage with the players post-game! This has been great to see the last couple of home games.

NIXY'S NEWS

WITH MNBL1 HEAD COACH

CHARLES NIX

Hello Redbacks

It's been really pleasing over the last couple of weeks to get some positive results. To head down to Eaton on the weekend and come away with a win, with players still to return from injury, after the Slammers pushed us early was fantastic.

Over the last month we've started to see some momentum both at training and in games and now it's starting to pay dividends. We've really focused on sticking with our defensive principles and bringing consistent energy, physicality and communication as well as understanding the types of shots we want to take and how our offence gets the ball to where we feel most effective.

Tonight we play a Suns team in a similar record to us, if we are serious about being a play off team tonight is extremely important. They are a stacked team lead by Marshall Nelson and Lewis Thomas as well as ex-Wildcat championship star Terrico White. Brendan Dinardo has evolved into a top line guard and the young and dynamic Marley Sam has opened a lot of eyes in the league. Seb Salinas, Rob Huntington and Reece Maxwell are vets that have been there and done that, and our old friend Joel Vaiangina always has a game against us. If the Randy Bell (new import) rumors are true, they are loaded with talent.

Knowing all that, and with us still working through some injuries, I'm really confident that sticking to our scout and executing our system will put us in a position to come out on top. Our group has hung tough and stayed together through a challenging part of the season, and as I've said over the last few weeks are starting to show us what we can be at the end of this.

Thanks again for all of the support, the group us working and the positive performances will continue to come.

Cheers

Nixy
