TIM RENDULIC

Hi Redbacks fans for the final time in 2025!

What a season it's been so far - but we're not done yet! It's been a great achievement by the side to finish the season in 3rd place & to have earned a qualifying final last week. We were admittedly disappointed at the final result. Warwick to their credit were tough & made it a true play off scrap. Defensively we were where we needed to be, we just couldn't get an offensive flow & it took a late game shot to get Warwick over the line. We have made the adjustments, will stick together & look forward to getting back to our Redbacks brand of basketball tonight against Perry Lakes.

We welcome Craig Mansfield & the Hawks team off the back of an elimination final last week. We've had two tight battles this season & tonight will be no exception. They are loaded with talent that is obviously spear headed by WNBL duo Jayda Clark & Alex Fowler. Mia Satie & Maddy Dennis anchor with experience, Grace Stone is as a consistent import can be, whilst they have had valuable contributions off the bench in Newman, Fisher & Perry. We are expecting a war for 40 minutes.

The team has been a real treat to work with this year. They are a fantastic group of humans & work equally as hard on the court at trainings, games or any engagement. Quick congratulations to our league recipients at the recent awards night. Alaska came away with Youth Player of the year, Maley received All-NBL1 First team honours & the rebounding title, Sophie Doran was a finalist for 6th woman of the year & Georgia Denehey was named in the All-Defensive team. It was great for these individuals to be recognised for their hard work & seasons - but the rest of our squad has worked equally as hard. Patty Brossman has been an absolute star with her IQ, charisma, poise & ability to influence games a number of ways. Nat Chou is a star of the league & arguably had one of her strongest campaigns. Kyah Nichols has gone from strength to strength as the year has progressed, Shenae had a successful return from an ACL recovery, Ashlyn, Mya & Ari have made the most of their opportunities, Ary Horne & Grace Evans have been welcomed additions that have strengthened our culture, Mik Deshon has found ways to work her way into the best 12 each week while the evolution of our development players Jenna, Mafa & Leesh has been evident over the season. Lastly our captain, Raya, has been tremendous whether on or off the court this season. She has led from the front & is so well respected amongst her team mates & wider league. A testament to her character & leadership.

The season has also had its challenges on the injury front. Grace Tavelli with a planter fascia, Grace Evans with a stress reaction in her foot & then of course Alaska Rhebook & our captain, Raya Thompson, suffering season ending ACL injuries in the same week. It's part of the reality of basketball at times & we will be there to support all these players in their recoveries in the coming months.

Lastly I'd like to send all my well wishes to Charles Nix & his family as his commitments to the club come to an end in the men's program. Nixy is a monumental reason I am even close to the coach I am today. I was so fortunate to work with him for a number of years, which actually began with the Redbacks women's program in 2018. He is one of the best quality people I know, a super coach & a dedicated family man that has sacrificed so much of his time over the years for the game we all love. I will always look up to him as a coach & so grateful I get to call him a friend. I know he will bounce back into the scene when the time is right.

Thank you so much for the support all season Redbacks fans - but now is the time!!! Your energy, passion & spirit will help the girls get this done & push as towards our ultimate goal! We are ready & can't wait to continue on this journey with you.

Timmy
