Hello Redbacks,

It is certainly great to be back home at the web after the longest road trip in the competition last week, out to the Goldfields. It was a strong performance by the playing group for 3 & half quarters, in a tough environment. After being forced into overtime, Goldfields were able to will themselves across the line when it mattered. The group will be better for the experience, but after some reflection, we know where we need to be better & continue seeking that improvement to get the results we have been so close to procuring. The results are coming Redback fans - so stick with us!

Tonight we welcome Lakeside who are guided by Craig Mansfield in his return to a club where he has had much success. They are talented, fast, up-tempo & shoot an extremely high number of 3 balls. Certainly an example of how the modern game is trending. We will have to be really disciplined to our defensive responsibilities to snare control the outcome & the terms of how the game will be played.

Lastly - tonight is Pink Round in support of raising funds & awareness for Breast Cancer Care WA (BCCWA). This round has gained momentum each season since its inception by the club & I hope tonight is no different. Breast Cancer affects so many people in the community, so any time we're able to contribute to the support or awareness of such an important space, is such a positive. We hope you really like the feature uniforms designed by Nick Tan. They look amazing.

Be loud Redbacks fans!

WITH NBL1 HEAD COACH
LUKE SUNDERLAND

After putting together back-to-back wins, this group has given itself an opportunity to build some real momentum heading into another important home game this weekend. A third straight win would go a long way toward creating separation from the bottom pack as the season continues to tighten.

What has been most pleasing over the past two weeks has been the resilience and composure shown by the group in pressure moments. Consecutive come-from-behind victories, including last weekend's tough road win in Kalgoorlie, have highlighted the character, toughness, and belief developing within this team.

Individually, Isaac Etter delivered a breakout performance last week with 34 points, including 19 in the fourth quarter, while remarkably finishing the game without a single turnover. His offensive aggression and confidence were crucial down the stretch. Nick Floyd has also continued his consistent form, providing reliability and impact on both ends of the floor each week.

Another major positive has been the return of Marshall Nelson from an unexpected injury setback. His leadership, energy, and experience bring another dimension to the group and strengthen our rotation heading into an important stretch of the season.

This week presents another strong challenge against a talented Lakeside outfit. Corey Shervill is a proven scorer capable of taking over games offensively, while Josh Davey continues to establish himself as one of the competition's premier rebounders and interior finishers, improving year after year.

We're looking forward to another great contest at home and appreciate the continued support from everyone backing the group each week.
